

TEACHING, LEARNING AND TEACHER EDUCATION (MEd)

The program grows educational leaders who can make a difference for the future in multiple educational settings.

Description

The Department of Teaching, Learning, and Teacher Education offers master's and doctoral degrees that:

- engage in and with current educational research
- fit individual needs
- offer rich opportunities to work with highly qualified faculty members who are actively engaged in cross-disciplinary scholarship focused on schools and communities
- challenge in breadth and depth to change and improve education for all

Students will find new ways to view the work of teachers, teaching, learners, and learning. The coursework explores relationships across cultures and schooling, ethics, human well-being, and education for diversity — fostering professional development alongside preparing people for positions of leadership in varied educational settings.

Applying for Admission

Standard requirements for all graduate programs

- Application for Admission with $50 non-refundable application fee (<https://graduate.unl.edu/admissions/requirements/#appfee>).
- Transcripts (<https://graduate.unl.edu/admissions/requirements/#transcripts>) (unofficial): Uploaded as part of application form.

If International: Uploads must include all college- or university-level transcripts or mark sheets (records of courses and marks earned), with certificates, diplomas, and degrees plus certified English translations.

After admission: Official documents are required from all students who are admitted and enroll. Photocopies of certified records are not acceptable. International students enrolled in other U.S. institutions may have certified copies of all foreign records sent directly to the Office of Graduate Studies by their current school's registrar office.

- If applicant's native language is not English, verification of English proficiency (<https://graduate.unl.edu/admissions/english-proficiency/>) is required.

When sending TOEFL scores, our institution code is 6877 and a department code is not needed.

- If applicant is not a US citizen and expects an F or J visa: financial information (<https://graduate.unl.edu/prospective/international/financial/>).
- Applicants must also fulfill any additional requirements the department specifies at the time of application.

Additional requirements specific to this program

- Minimum English proficiency: Paper TOEFL (<http://www.toefl.org/>) 550, Internet TOEFL (<http://www.toefl.org/>) 79, IELTS (<https://www.ielts.org/>) 6.5
- Resume
- Personal Statement: In 700-1000 words, address why you want to pursue graduate study at the Master's level at Nebraska, specifically: 1) your academic and/or professional goals and how the master's degree in Teaching, Learning, and Teacher Education will enable you to meet them; 2) your academic strengths, with specific attention to your background in higher education and how this qualifies you for graduate study at a major university; 3) any professional experience, knowledge, and skills you possess and how these further qualify you for graduate study at a major university.
- Three letters of recommendation

A complete background check may be required upon admission to the program. Many institutions require a criminal history background check before an individual is allowed to work, volunteer, conduct research or collect data within their facility. CEHS students who are required in their program to go into daycare facilities, schools, hospitals, or other community agencies must complete a background check before CEHS can place them in these facilities.
